THEATRICAL OFFERINGS TWO BIG ACTS OPEN NEW BILL AT THE BIJOU

After being dark for two nights, the Bijou theater will reopen tonight with a combination vaudeville and moving picture program. The vaudeville acts will be two in number and both are Orpheum features. Both have been in Australia for nearly a year and were booked solid during all this time over the Fuller circuit.

The Aerial Bartlett's guarantee to give Honolulu a thrill with their death-defying sensation, "A Drop from the Clouds" and other aerial feats.
Australian theatrical critics say this is one of the best vaudeville acts which has ever visited that continent.
Gruet & Gruet are blackface comedians who have played in big time year after year and have appeared in every civilized land on the globe. They are funmakers of the cleanest and most wholesome kind and are a scream from the time they step on the stage until the curtain drops. Besides their blackface act they will present their original sketch "Sam at the Circus."

In addition to these big vaudeville acts the management will put on five reels of selected moving pictures. Two shows will be given nightly for the limited engagement, beginning at 7:15 and 9 o'clock.

82 PYTHIANS BOOKED FOR TRIP TO MAUI Eighty-two members of the Pythian lodges of Honolulu and their wives have been booked for the excursion to Maui now being arranged in response to an invitation of Aloha Lodge No. 3, Walluku.

The Inter-Island steamer Mauna Loa has been chartered for the junket and will leave Pier 13 at 9 o'clock Friday evening, February 5. The excursion will be the first visit paid to the Valley Isle by the Honolulu Pythian lodges in 18 years. According to advance information from Maui, the Knights of Walluku are preparing a rousing reception for the visitors.
Among other things the program will include a sightseeing tour about the island by automobile.

INFORMATION WANTED

Information wanted regarding the present whereabouts of one Siegfried Weiss, born in Troppau, Silesia, 28 years old; last heard of from Honolulu. Kindly address H. Schultze, Consul for Austria-Hungary.—Adv.

Otto and Ernest Stutz of Brooklyn, dealers in provisions, were fined $1500 for trying to ship sour pork in interstate commerce.

'NO DAM DOGS' FOR HAWAII; IS NOT PROFANITY

Albert Waterhouse, at the meeting of the board of agriculture yesterday, announced that the governor on January 3 accepted the resignation of W. M.
Giffard as president of the board and appointed Mr. Waterhouse to the position. Mr. Giffard remains a member of the board.

Dr. Elliot, veterinarian for the Hilo section, was granted an allowance of $300 for the six months ending June 30 next as transportation expenses in the work of testing cattle for tuberculosis, which has now been actively started on all the other islands.

Dr. Norgaard was allowed $200 to build a kennel for aristocratic dogs on the rabies quarantine ground.

"No Dam dogs allowed," the president remarked without cursing intended as he asked approval, which was voted, of a communication to Delegate Kuhio saying that the request of Everett S. Dam of Seattle for a permit to his wife as an intending visitor to bring in her lapdogs without subjection to quarantine was refused.

Hydrographer Larsson recommended that the governor and land commissioner be asked to have inserted in future land leases, where the land contained water resources valuable enough to be considered an asset, a provision requiring the lessee to install water measuring apparatus. Action was deferred. Mr. Dowsett regarding the question too broad for a summary decision. In the meantime a copy of the hydrographer's letter will be sent to the land commissioners.

Divisional reports were received and the rest of the business was in relation to milk inspection separately reported.

With the president were present Commissioners Dowsett and Rice, and Forester C. S. Judd, who is executive officer of the board.

SPECIAL MUSIC SUNDAY EVENING AT M. E. CHURCH

Miss Pearl Sutherland, organist and director, will present a special musical program at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday evening, the newly organized quartet being assisted by Mr. H. L. Chase, baritone, and Miss Lucia Morris, violinist.

Mr. Chase is visiting Honolulu for a few months and assisted Mrs. A.
B. Ingalls in her concert on Tuesday evening. He will sing "Lord God of Abraham" from "Elijah," by Mendelssohn. Miss Morris is also a visitor in Honolulu from Portland, Ore. She will play Bach's well-known "Air on the G String."

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."

—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more.
I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs.
ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.
